Plan

March

Prepare to Teach (all subjects)

Free online training sessions for each subject, covering curriculum content and assessment.

Any time, on request

Teacher and Senior Examiner clinics (all specifications)

Talk to a senior examiner or teacher about any questions regarding teaching, curriculum or assessment.

Teach

September

Getting Started (all specifications)

This training is designed to support those just starting to teach an OxfordAQA specification.

Ensure you feel confident at the start of the academic year with guidance on teaching our specifications, including advice on curriculum delivery and support resources.

September - March

Teacher Toolkit (selected subjects)

This is for everyone teaching OxfordAQA specifications.

Teacher Toolkit sessions contain expert training on specific aspects of our specifications where teachers appreciate additional support.

Assess

November

Marking Guidance (all specifications)

This training is for anyone teaching OxfordAQA specifications who would like in-depth guidance on the marking process.

Senior Examiners go through genuine student responses to exam questions, demonstrating how the mark scheme is applied and how marks are allocated.

March

Marking Guidance (ESL, Maths and Science)

Another round of Marking Guidance training for these subjects, focusing on a different element of the assessment.

Anytime support

- Help and guidance from your regional consultants
- Access to subject experts
- Teacher guidance videos
- Catch-up with previous training sessions
