Work submitted for assessment must be the candidate's own. If candidates copy work, allow candidates to copy from them, or cheat in any other way, they may be disqualified.

Candidate declaration

Have you received help/information from anyone other than subject teacher(s) to produce this work?

☐ No   ☐ Yes (give details below or on a separate sheet if necessary).

Please list below any books, leaflets or other materials (eg DVDs, software packages, internet information) used to complete this work not acknowledged in the work itself. Presenting materials copied from other sources without acknowledgement is regarded as deliberate deception.

We may use examples of candidate's work for standardisation or training purposes. Please see our privacy notice for more information on how we use assessment data and on your rights under data privacy legislation.

I have read and understood the above. I confirm I produced the attached work without assistance other than that which is acceptable under the scheme of assessment.

4.   Commentary: Writing process (Note, this is an assessed part of your project)

You will be assessed on your ability to reflect on and explain your purpose and methods in presenting your project. You should show understanding of audience and purpose, and give examples of your use of form and language to match.

You should explain:

a)   how and why you organised and presented your writing for your chosen audience(s) and purpose(s) eg paragraph structure and sequence, and presentational devices to engage, appeal to and influence your readers

b)   how and why you chose language and tone for audience and purpose eg to engage, appeal to and influence your readers

To be completed by the teacher

You must clearly show how marks have been awarded against the marking criteria on the specification. Your annotation will help the moderator see, as precisely as possible, where you think the students have met the marking criteria. Work can be annotated by either or both of the following methods; flagging evidence in the margins or in the text, summative comments referencing precise sections of work.

Assessment criteria		Maximum mark	Mark awarded
Reading		30
Writing		30
	Total mark	60
