1.2 Why choose our International GCSE French?

We have worked closely with teachers to develop a relevant, engaging and up-to-date French specification to inspire, motivate and challenge all students regardless of their academic ability.

Particular care has been taken to make the language used in question papers as accessible as possible and suitable for those students for whom English is not their first language. UK English spellings will be used in examination papers. British idiosyncratic terms however, will be avoided to aid students' understanding.

Our objective is to enable students of all abilities to develop their French language skills to their full potential, equipping them with the knowledge to communicate in a variety of contexts with confidence.

We're passionate about the benefits that learning a language can bring. We strongly believe in languages as a skill for life and something students should enjoy and find rewarding.

We know you want a specification which you can enjoy teaching, and one which expands your students' cultural knowledge whilst developing their language skills.

We are confident our assessments will deliver the right results for your students. We want to help you to attract students of all abilities to languages and to deliver the assessments and results you and your students deserve.

Our specification offers students a firm foundation of the knowledge and skills required for further study and future employment.

4 Scheme of assessment

Find mark schemes, and specimen papers for new courses, on our website at oxfordaqa.com/9265
This is a linear qualification. In order to achieve the award, students must complete all assessments at the end of the course and in the same series.

Our International GCSE exams and certification for this specification are available for the first time in May/June 2025 and then every May/June and November for the life of the specification.

All materials are available in English only.
Our GCSE exams in French include questions that allow students to demonstrate their ability to:

- draw together their knowledge, skills and understanding from across the full course of study
- provide extended responses.

4.1 Aims and learning outcomes

Courses based on this specification should encourage students to develop their ability and ambition to communicate with native speakers in speech and writing. The study of French should also broaden their horizons and encourage them to step beyond familiar cultural boundaries and develop new ways of seeing the world.

Courses based on this specification should enable students to:

- develop their ability to communicate confidently and coherently with native speakers in speech and writing, conveying what they want to say with increasing accuracy
- express and develop thoughts and ideas spontaneously and fluently
- listen to and understand clearly articulated, standard speech at near normal speed
- deepen their knowledge about how language works and enrich their vocabulary to increase their independent use and understanding of extended language in a range of contexts
- acquire new knowledge, skills and ways of thinking through the ability to understand and respond to authentic spoken and written material, adapted and abridged, as appropriate
- develop awareness and understanding of the culture and identity of the countries and communities where French is spoken
- make appropriate links to other areas of the curriculum to enable bilingual and deeper learning, where the language may become a medium for constructing and applying knowledge
- develop language learning skills both for immediate use and prepare them for further language study in school, higher education or employment
- develop language strategies, including repair strategies.

4.2 Assessment Objectives

The exams will measure how students have achieved the following assessment objectives.

- A01: Listening - understand and respond to different types of spoken language.
- AO2: Speaking - communicate and interact effectively in speech.
- AO3: Reading - understand and respond to different types of written language.
- AO4: Writing - communicate in writing.

4.2.1 Assessment Objective weightings

| Assessment  Objectives  (AOs) | Paper 1:  Listening | Paper 2:  Speaking | Paper 3:  Reading | Paper 4:  Writing | Overall  weighting of  AOs (approx.  \%) |
| :--- | :--- | :--- | :--- | :--- | :--- |
|  | 25 |  |  |  | 25 |
| AO2 (Speaking) |  | 25 |  |  | 25 |
| AO3 (Reading) |  |  | 25 | 25 |  |
| AO4 (Writing) |  |  |  | 25 | 25 |
| Overall  weighting of  components (\%) | 25 | 25 | 100 |  |  |

4.3 Assessment weightings

The marks awarded on the papers will be scaled to meet the weighting of the components. Students' final marks will be calculated by adding together the scaled marks for each component. Grade boundaries will be set using this total scaled mark. The scaling and total scaled marks are shown in the table below.

| Component | Maximum raw  mark | Scaling factor | Maximum scaled  mark |
| :--- | :--- | :--- | :--- |
| Paper 1 (Listening) | 40 | $x 3 / 2$ | 60 |
| Paper 2 (Speaking) | 40 | $x 3 / 2$ | 60 |
| Paper 3 (Reading) | 60 | $x 1$ | 60 |
| Paper 4 (Writing) | 60 | $x 1$ | 60 |
| Total scaled mark: |  |  | 240 |

4.4 Paper 1: Listening

40 marks; 50 minutes (including 5 minutes' reading time)

- The test will be studio recorded using native speakers speaking in clearly articulated, standard speech at near normal speed.
- The recording will be provided to schools in an appropriate audio format at the same time as the dispatch of the question papers.
- Different types of spoken language will be used, using familiar language across a range of contemporary and cultural themes.
- Students will be given five minutes' reading time at the beginning of the test to give them time to read the questions.
- An example will be provided in the question paper only where it is necessary to indicate to students how a particular question should be answered.
- Each item will be heard twice and pauses for students to answer will be built into the test.
- Students will be allowed to make notes at any time during the test.
- Access to dictionaries is not permitted at any time during the test.

In Section A, students' understanding of spoken language will be tested by a range of question types in English, requiring non-verbal responses or responses in English. In Section B, students' comprehension will be tested by a range of question types in French, requiring non-verbal responses or responses in French.

The responses will be assessed according to a detailed mark scheme; the appropriate mark(s) will be awarded if the student has satisfactorily communicated their understanding, even though the response may contain some errors in the quality of language used.

The test will consist of a variety of short and longer spoken pieces of language, involving some more complex language later in the test. This will not place an undue burden on memory at any time.

Students will be required to identify the overall message, key points, details and opinions from items such as announcements, short conversations, instructions, news bulletins and telephone messages, together with some material which will be longer and will include reference to the relationship between past, present and future events. These items will include authentic sources, suitably adapted and abridged. They will also be required to deduce meaning from more abstract material, including short narratives. They will hear more extended spoken text where they will recognise and respond to key information, themes and ideas by answering questions, extracting information and evaluating and drawing conclusions.

See the Listening test assessment criteria (page 60).

4.5 Paper 2: Speaking

40 marks. Students will attend one session of 10 minutes (and supervised preparation time of 10 minutes).
A window of up to five weeks will be timetabled for the test, during which schools will be free to test their students at any time. The window will be timetabled to run in April and May. The teacher may open the speaking test materials up to three working days in advance of the first day of the specified test period in order to prepare for conducting the tests. The Teacher's booklet will contain a Speaking test sequence chart which will show which Photo card each student must be allocated and which themes will be covered in the General conversation part of the test.

Detailed instructions for the teacher will be issued prior to the test period.

The confidentiality of the test materials must be strictly maintained prior to and during the period of the tests.
Access to dictionaries is not permitted at any time during the test or the supervised preparation time.
Instructions for the test are in English. All questions are in French.
Students will be allowed to make notes, on an Additional answer sheet, during their supervised preparation time and take them into the exam room to use during the test. There is no restriction on the number of words or the material (eg conjugated verbs) which the notes may contain. They must hand the notes in to the teacher-examiner immediately before the General conversation part of the test. The notes must be stored under secure conditions until results day, after which they must be disposed of.

The test is conducted and audio-recorded by the teacher and marked by OxfordAQA.

4.5.1 Photo card (15 marks)

Based on a stimulus card, to be prepared by the student immediately before the test in the supervised preparation time. Students will discuss one Photo card (approximately three to five minutes). Teachers will ask five prescribed questions based on the Photo card. Three of these five questions will be printed on the student's card.

4.5.2 General conversation (25 marks)

The teacher will conduct a conversation based on the two themes which have not been covered on the Photo card (between five and seven minutes). A similar amount of time should be spent on each theme. The student will choose the first theme; the second theme is the remaining theme which has not been covered in the Photo card part of the test. This ensures that aspects of all three themes are covered in the Speaking test.

The General conversation allows the student to take part in a conversation. The student will also convey information and narrate events coherently and confidently and use and adapt language for new purposes. They will be able to speak spontaneously, responding to unexpected questions, points of view or situations and sustain communication by using repair strategies. They will initiate and develop conversations and discussion to produce extended sequences of speech. They will make creative and more complex use of language, as appropriate, to express and justify their own thoughts and points of view.

Both parts of the test will allow students to demonstrate appropriate and accurate use of a variety of vocabulary and grammatical structures, including some more complex forms, with reference to past, present and future events. They will also allow students to use accurate pronunciation and intonation so as to be understood by a native speaker.

See the Speaking test assessment criteria (page 60).

4.6 Paper 3: Reading

60 marks; 1 hour 15 minutes

- Different types of written language will be used, including relevant personal communication, public information and factual texts.
- An example will be provided in the question paper only where it is necessary to indicate to students how a particular question should be answered.
- Access to dictionaries is not permitted at any time during the test.

In Section A, students' understanding of written language will be tested by a range of question types in English, requiring non-verbal responses or responses in English. In Section B, students' comprehension will be tested by a range of question types in French, requiring non-verbal responses or responses in French. In Section C, there will be a translation from French into English (a minimum of 50 words).

Responses will be assessed according to a detailed mark scheme; the appropriate mark(s) will be awarded if the student has satisfactorily communicated their understanding, even though the response may contain some errors in the quality of language used.

The test will consist of a variety of short and longer written texts, involving some more complex language later in the test. Students will be required to identify the overall message, key points, details and opinions from items such as instructions, public notices and advertisements, together with some material which will be longer, such as extracts from brochures, guides, letters, newspapers, magazines, email and websites. These will include reference to the relationship between past, present and future events. These items will include authentic sources, suitably adapted and abridged.

Students will also be required to deduce meaning from a variety of written texts, including some unfamiliar language and short narratives. They will be presented with longer texts where they will be required to recognise and respond to key information, themes and ideas. They will demonstrate understanding by being able to scan for particular information, organise and present relevant details. They will draw inferences and recognise implicit meaning.

See the Reading test assessment criteria (page 63).

4.7 Paper 4: Writing

60 marks; 1 hour 15 minutes
Students are required to write in French.

- Access to dictionaries is not permitted at any time during the test.
- All instructions are in English. All questions are in French.

4.7.1 Question 1 (8 marks)

A message which demonstrates students' ability to write short sentences using familiar language in a familiar context.

4.7.2 Question 2 (16 marks)

A structured writing task which demonstrates students' ability to produce clear and coherent text of extended length, to present facts and express ideas and opinions. They also make accurate use of a variety of vocabulary and grammatical structures, including some more complex forms, to describe and narrate with reference to past, present and future events. They are required to manipulate the language, using and adapting a variety of structures and vocabulary, using appropriate style and register. The requirement to use formal or informal address will vary year on year.

Students are expected to write approximately 90 words but, provided the tasks set are completed, the number of words is not important.

4.7.3 Question 3 (12 marks)

A translation from English into French, requiring a minimum of 50 words. This demonstrates students' ability to convey key messages accurately and to apply grammatical knowledge of language and structures.

4.7.4 Question 4 (24 marks)

An open-ended writing task which demonstrates their ability to make independent, creative and more complex use of the language, as appropriate, to note down key points, express and justify individual thoughts and points of view, in order to interest, inform or convince. They should use appropriate style and register. The requirement to use formal or informal address will vary year on year.

Students are expected to write approximately 150 words but, provided the tasks set are completed, the number of words is not important. They choose either Question 4.1 or 4.2.

See the Writing test assessment criteria (page 63).

4.8 Assessment criteria

4.8.1 Listening

See the mark scheme published each year for details of how marks are awarded for this question paper.

4.8.2 Speaking

Marks will be allocated in the following way:

|  | Communication | Knowledge and  use of language | Pronunciation  and intonation | Spontaneity  and fluency | Total |
| :--- | :--- | :--- | :--- | :--- | :--- |
| Photo card | 10 | 5 | - | - | 15 |
| Conversation | 10 | 5 | 5 | 5 | 25 |
| Total | 20 | 10 | 5 | 5 | 40 |

Part 1: Photo card (15 marks)

The student's responses to the five questions are assessed for Communication and Knowledge and use of language, as specified in the criteria below.

Communication

| Level | Mark | Communication |
| :--- | :--- | :--- |
| 5 | $9-10$ | The speaker replies to all questions clearly and develops most answers. They  give and explain an opinion. |
| 4 | $5-8$ | The speaker replies to all or nearly all questions clearly and develops some  answers. They give and explain an opinion. |
| 3 | $3-4$ | The speaker gives understandable replies to most questions and develops at  least one answer. They give an opinion. |
| 2 | $1-2$ | The speaker gives understandable replies to most questions but they may be  short and/or repetitive. More prompts are used to obtain a response. |
| 1 | 0 | The speaker replies to some questions but the answers are likely to be short  and/or repetitive. The speaker is clearly reliant on the prompts in order to  respond. |

Knowledge and use of language

| Mark | Knowledge and use of language |
| :--- | :--- |
| 5 | Very good knowledge and use of language. |
| 4 | Good knowledge and use of language. |
| 3 | Reasonable knowledge and use of language. |
| 2 | Limited knowledge and use of language. |
| 1 | Poor knowledge and use of language. |
| 0 | No language produced is worthy of credit |

Notes

(a) At least one question on each Photo card asks students to give and explain an opinion.
(b) Students who do not understand a question may show repair strategies in seeking clarification. If they are then able to respond to the question successfully, they should be awarded the same mark as if they had understood it originally.

Part 2: General conversation (25 marks)

The General conversation is based on the two themes not covered in the Photo card. The conversation should last between five and seven minutes. It is assessed for Communication, Knowledge and use of language, Pronunciation and intonation and Spontaneity and fluency, as specified in the criteria below.

A zero score for Communication means that the mark in the other three categories must also be zero but, apart from that, the Communication mark does not limit the marks in the other categories.

Communication

| Level | Mark | Communication |
| :--- | :--- | :--- |
| 5 | $9-10$ | A speaker who consistently develops responses in extended sequences of  speech. Narrates events coherently when asked to do so. Conveys information  clearly at all times, giving and explaining opinions convincingly. |
| 4 | $7-8$ | A speaker who regularly develops responses in extended sequences of  speech. Usually narrates events when asked to do so. Almost always conveys  information clearly, giving and explaining opinions. |
| 3 | $5-6$ | A speaker who develops some responses in extended sequences of speech.  Sometimes narrates events when asked to do so. Usually conveys information  clearly, giving and often explaining opinions. |
| 2 | $3-4$ | A speaker who usually gives quite short responses but occasionally gives  extended responses. Occasionally narrates events briefly when asked to do  so. Usually gives clear information but lacks clarity from time to time. Gives  opinions, some of which are explained. |
| 1 | $1-2$ | A speaker who tends to give quite short responses, but with occasional  attempts at longer responses. They have only limited success in narrating  events. There may be a few occasions when they are unable e answer  successfully or where responses are very unclear. Gives opinions. |
|  | 0 | Communication does not reach the standard required for Level 1. |

Knowledge and use of language

| Level | Mark | Knowledge and use of language |
| :--- | :--- | :--- |
| 5 | 5 | Excellent language with a wide variety of linguistic structures and a wide range  of vocabulary. References to past and future, as well as present, events are  made confidently. Generally a high level of accuracy though minor errors may  occur. |
| 4 | 4 | Very good language with some variety of linguistic structures and a range  of vocabulary. References to past and future, as well as present, events are  generally successful. Minor errors likely when complex structures and/or  vocabulary are attempted. |
| 3 | 3 | Good language with some attempts at more complex structures and vocabulary  which are usually successful. References to past and future, as well as present,  events are made and are sometimes successful. There may be minor errors and  occasional more serious ones, but they do not impede communication. |
| 2 | 1 | Reasonable language which uses simple structures and vocabulary and may  occasionally be repetitive. Attempts to make reference to past or future events  may have only limited success. Errors may occasionally impede communication. |
| 1 | 0 | Basic language which uses simple structures, a limited vocabulary range and  may often be repetitive. There is little or no success in making reference to past  or future events. There are likely to be frequent errors which regularly impede  communication. |
|  |  |  |

Pronunciation and intonation

| Level | Mark | Pronunciation and intonation |
| :--- | :--- | :--- |
| 5 | 5 | Consistently good pronunciation and intonation throughout. |
| 4 | 4 | Good pronunciation and intonation with only occasional lapses in more  challenging language. |
| 3 | 3 | Pronunciation is generally understandable with some sustained intonation. |
| 2 | 1 | Pronunciation is usually understandable with a little intonation; comprehension  is sometimes delayed. |
| 1 | 0 | Pronunciation and intonation are occasionally understandable; comprehension  is difficult at times. |
|  | 2 | Pronunciation and intonation do not reach the standard required for Level 1. |

Spontaneity and fluency

| Level | Mark | Spontaneity and fluency |
| :--- | :--- | :--- |
| 5 | 5 | Excellent exchange in which the speaker reacts naturally to the questions  asked and has an air of spontaneity. Responds promptly and speaks with some  fluency, though not necessarily with that of a native speaker. |
| 4 | 4 | Very good exchange in which the speaker usually reacts naturally to the  questions asked and is often spontaneous. Usually responds promptly and there  is some flow of language. |
| 3 | 2 | Good exchange in which the speaker sometimes reacts naturally to the  questions asked, but also relies on pre-learnt responses. Sometimes hesitates  and may not be able to respond to some questions but the delivery generally  has a reasonable pace. |
| 2 | 1 | Reasonable exchange in which the speaker shows a little spontaneity, but  much of what is said involves pre-learnt responses. The flow is often broken by  hesitation and delivery can be quite slow at times. |
| 1 | Basic exchange in which the speaker shows no spontaneity and relies heavily  on pre-learnt responses. There are frequent and sometimes long hesitations.  Slow delivery means that the conversation is disjointed and lacks any flow. |  |
|  | Spontaneity and fluency do not reach the standard required for Level 1. |  |

Notes

Students who do not understand a question may show repair strategies in seeking clarification. If they are then able to respond to the question successfully, this will not have a negative impact on the overall mark, unless it happens regularly and affects fluency.

4.8.3 Reading

See the mark scheme published each year for details of how marks are awarded for this question paper.

4.8.4 Writing

Marks will be allocated in the following way:

|  | Communication | Content | Quality of  language | Range of  language | Accuracy | Conveying  key  messages  Application  of  grammatical  knowledge  of language  and  structures | Total |
| :--- | :--- | :--- | :--- | :--- | :--- | :--- | :--- | :--- |

Question 1 (8 marks)

Students are required to write four sentences. Each sentence is marked according to the following criteria.

| Mark | Communication |
| :--- | :--- |
| 2 | The relevant message is clearly communicated. |
| 1 | The message is relevant but has some ambiguity and causes a delay in communication. |
| 0 | The message is irrelevant or cannot be understood. |

Question 2 ( 16 marks)

There are four compulsory bullet points, assessed for Content (10 marks) and Quality of language (6 marks), as specified in the criteria below. The student is expected to produce approximately 90 words over the whole question. The number of words expected is approximate; examiners will mark all work produced by the student.

Content

| Level | Mark | Response |
| :--- | :--- | :--- |
| 5 | $9-10$ | A very good response covering all aspects of the task. Communication is clear  and a lot of information is conveyed. Opinions are expressed. |
| 4 | $5-6$ | A good response covering all aspects of the task. Communication is mostly  clear but perhaps with occasional lapses. Quite a lot of information is conveyed.  Opinions are expressed. |
| 3 | $3-4$ | A reasonable response covering almost all aspects of the task. Communication  is generally clear but there are likely to be lapses. Some information is  conveyed. An opinion is expressed. |
| 2 | $1-2$ | A basic response covering some aspects of the task. Communication is  sometimes clear but there are instances where messages break down. Little  information is conveyed. An opinion is expressed. |
| 1 | 0 | A limited response covering some aspects of the task. Communication is often  not clear and there may be frequent instances where messages break down.  Very little information is conveyed. There may be no opinions expressed. |

Notes

There may be some imbalance in the coverage of the four compulsory bullet points but, provided at least some coverage of all bullet points is evident, students will have access to full marks where the other criteria are met.

Quality of language

| Level | Mark | Response |
| :--- | :--- | :--- |
| 3 | $5-6$ | A variety of appropriate vocabulary is used. Complex structures and sentences  are attempted. There are references to three time frames, which are largely  successful. Errors are mainly minor. Some more serious errors may occur,  particularly in complex structures and sentences, but the intended meaning is  nearly always clear. The style and register are appropriate. |
| 2 | $3-4$ | Some variety of appropriate vocabulary is used. There may be some attempt at  complex structures and sentences. There are references to at least two different  time frames, although these may not always be successful. There may be some  major errors, and more frequent minor errors, but overall the response is more  accurate than inaccurate and the intended meaning is usually clear. The style  and register may not always be appropriate. |

| 1 | $1-2$ | The range of vocabulary may be narrow, repetitive and/or inappropriate to  the needs of the task. Sentences are mainly short and simple or may not be  properly constructed. There may be frequent major and minor errors. Little or no  awareness of style and register. |
| :--- | :--- | :--- |
|  | 0 | The language produced does not meet the standard required for Level 1. |

Notes

(a) A major error is one which seriously affects communication.
(b) A mark of zero for Content automatically results in a mark of zero for Quality of language. Apart from that, the Content mark does not limit the mark for Quality of language.

Question 3 (12 marks)

The translation is assessed for Conveying key messages (6 marks) and Application of grammatical knowledge of language and structures (6 marks), as specified in the criteria below.

Conveying key messages

| Level | Marks | Response |
| :--- | :--- | :--- |
| 6 | 6 | All key messages are conveyed. |
| 5 | 5 | Nearly all key messages are conveyed. |
| 4 | 4 | Most key messages are conveyed. |
| 3 | 3 | Some key messages are conveyed. |
| 2 | 2 | Few key messages are conveyed. |
| 1 | 1 | Very few key messages are conveyed. |
|  | 0 | No key messages are conveyed. |

The translation is divided into 12 key messages. A tick will be awarded for each key message that is communicated, despite any minor inaccuracies. The total number of ticks awarded equates to a mark according to this table:

| Total ticks | Mark |
| :--- | :--- |
| 12 | 6 |
| $10 / 11$ | 5 |
| $7 / 8 / 9$ | 4 |
| $5 / 6$ | 3 |
| $3 / 4$ | 2 |
| $1 / 2$ | 1 |
| 0 | 0 |

When deciding on whether a key message is conveyed, you should ask yourself the question: 'Would a native speaker understand the target language version without reference to the original English?' If the answer is 'yes', award a tick.

Application of grammatical knowledge of language and structures

| Level | Marks | Response |
| :--- | :--- | :--- |
| 3 | $5-6$ | Good knowledge of vocabulary and structures; highly accurate. |
| 2 | $3-4$ | Reasonable knowledge of vocabulary and structures; generally more accurate  than inaccurate. |
| 1 | $1-2$ | Limited knowledge of vocabulary and structures; highly inaccurate. |
|  | 0 | The language produced does not meet the standard required for Level 1. |

Notes

A mark of zero for Conveying key messages automatically results in a mark of zero for Application of grammatical knowledge of language and structures, but apart from that, the Conveying key messages mark does not limit the mark for Application of grammatical knowledge of language and structures.

Question 4 (24 marks)

There are two compulsory bullet points, assessed for Content (12 marks), Range of language (8 marks) and Accuracy (4 marks), as specified in the criteria below.

The student is expected to produce approximately 150 words over the whole question. The number of words expected is approximate; examiners will mark all work produced by the student.

Content

| Level | Marks | Response |
| :--- | :--- | :--- |
| 4 | $10-12$ | A very good response which is almost always relevant and which conveys a lot  of information. Communication is mostly clear but there are a few ambiguities.  Opinions are expressed and justified. |
| 3 | $7-9$ | A good response which is generally relevant with quite a lot of information  conveyed. Communication is usually clear but there are some ambiguities.  Opinions are expressed and may be justified. |
| 2 | $1-3$ | A reasonable response with some relevant information conveyed.  Communication is sometimes clear but there may be instances where messages  break down. An opinion is expressed. |
| 1 | 0 | A basic response which conveys a limited amount of relevant information.  Communication may not be clear and there are instances where messages  break down. An opinion may be expressed. |

Notes

There may be some imbalance in the coverage of the two compulsory bullet points but, provided at least some coverage of both bullet points is evident, students will have access to full marks where the other criteria are met.

Range of language'

| Level | Marks | Response |
| :--- | :--- | :--- |
| 4 | $7-8$ | Very good variety of appropriate vocabulary and structures. More complex  sentences are handled with confidence, producing a fluent piece of coherent  writing. The style and register are appropriate. |
| 3 | $5-6$ | Good variety of appropriate vocabulary and structures. More complex  sentences are regularly attempted and are mostly successful, producing a  mainly fluent piece of coherent writing with occasional lapses. The style and  register are appropriate. |
| 2 | $3-4$ | Some variety of appropriate vocabulary and structures. Longer sentences are  attempted, using appropriate linking words, often successfully. The style and  register may not always be appropriate. |
| 1 | $1-2$ | Little variety of appropriate vocabulary. Structures are likely to be short and  simple. Little or no awareness of style and register. |
|  | The range of language produced does not meet the standard required for a  mark. |  |

Notes

(a) A major error is one which seriously affects communication.
(b) A mark of zero for Content automatically results in a mark of zero for Range of language. Apart from that, the Content mark does not limit the mark for Range of language.

Accuracy

| Level | Marks | Response |
| :--- | :--- | :--- |
| 4 | 4 | Generally accurate. Some minor errors. Occasional major errors, usually in  attempts at more complex structures. Verbs and tense formations are nearly  always correct. |
| 3 | 3 | Reasonably accurate. There are likely to be minor errors and there may be some  major errors, not only in complex structures. Verb and tense formations are  usually correct. |
| 2 | 2 | More accurate than inaccurate. The intended meaning is generally clear. Verb  and tense formations are sometimes correct. |
| 1 | 0 | There may be major errors and frequent minor ones, and the intended meaning  is not always clear. There is only limited success with verb and tense formations. |
|  | The content does not meet the standard required for Level 1. |  |

Notes

A mark of zero for Content automatically results in a mark of zero for Accuracy. Apart from that, the Content mark does not limit the mark for Accuracy.

5 General administration

We are committed to delivering assessments of the highest quality and have developed practices and procedures that support this aim. To ensure that all students have a fair experience, we have worked with other awarding bodies in England to develop best practice for maintaining the integrity of exams. This is published through the Joint Council for Qualifications (JCQ). We will maintain the same high standard through their use for OxfordAQA.

More information on all aspects of administration is available at oxfordaqa.com/exams-admin
For any immediate enquiries please contact info@oxfordaqa.com
Please note: We aim to respond to all email enquiries within two working days.
Our UK office hours are Monday to Friday, 8am - 5pm local time.

5.1 Entries and codes

You only need to make one entry for each qualification - this will cover all the question papers and certification.

| Qualification title | OxfordAQA entry code |
| :--- | :--- |
| OxfordAQA International GCSE French | 9265 |

Please check the current version of the Entry Codes book and the latest information about making entries on oxfordaqa.com/exams-admin

Exams will be available May/June and in November.

5.2 Overlaps with other qualifications

This specification overlaps with the AQA UK GCSE French (8658).

5.3 Awarding grades and reporting results

In line with UK GCSEs, this qualification will be graded on a nine-point scale: 1 to 9 - where 9 is the best grade. Students who fail to reach the minimum standard for grade 1 will be recorded as $U$ (unclassified) and will not receive a qualification certificate.

To find out more about the new grading system, visit our website at oxfordaqa.com

5.4 Resits

Students can retake the whole qualification as many times as they wish. This is a traditional linear specification, individual components cannot be resat.

You only need to make one entry for each qualification - this will cover all the question papers and certification.

5.5 Previous learning and prerequisites

There are no previous learning requirements. Any requirements for entry to a course based on this specification are at the discretion of schools.

5.6 Access to assessment: equality and inclusion

Our general qualifications are designed to prepare students for a wide range of occupations and further study whilst assessing a wide range of competences.

The subject criteria have been assessed to ensure they test specific competences. The skills or knowledge required do not disadvantage particular groups of students.

Exam access arrangements are available for students with disabilities and special educational needs.
We comply with the UK Equality Act 2010 to make reasonable adjustments to remove or lessen any disadvantage that affects a disabled student. Information about access arrangements will be issued to schools when they become OxfordAQA centres.

5.7 Working with OxfordAQA for the first time

You will need to apply to become an OxfordAQA centre to offer our specifications to your students. Find out how at oxfordaqa.com/centreapprovals

5.8 Private candidates

Centres may accept private candidates for examined units/components only with the prior agreement of OxfordAQA. If you are an approved OxfordAQA centre and wish to accept private candidates, please contact OxfordAQA at: info@oxfordaqa.com

It is expected that students undertaking this specification will sit the speaking paper. Centres accepting private candidates must ensure they have carried out this minimum requirement.

Private candidates may also enter for examined only units/components via the British Council; please contact your local British Council office for details.

6 Appendix: Communication strategies

Whilst it is useful for students to concentrate on a core of key language for any given topic, it is impossible to predict all the linguistic elements they might meet when reading and listening to authentic French, or which they themselves might need to use. For this reason, the student will need to develop communication strategies as part of the teaching and learning process, which will greatly increase their ability to cope successfully with unknown words.

There are two main types of strategy: those that relate to understanding (reading and listening) and those that relate to production (speaking and writing).

6.1 Strategies for understanding

6.1.1 Ignoring words which are not needed

Many tasks contain words which are not essential for an understanding of the main points of the text. What is important in the text is often presented more than once, in different ways: the student may not understand a point in one form of words and understand it fully in another.

6.1.2 Using the visual and verbal context

The skilled reader can find many clues about the purpose and content of a text from a study of the layout, the title, the length, the typeface and any related pictures.

When reading and listening, students can learn to infer the meaning of new words from the verbal context. For example, someone who did not know the word chêne might be able, after some appropriate practice, to deduce from the following context that it is some sort of tree: I/ s'est assis sous un chêne: dans ses branches, un oiseau chantait.

6.1.3 Making use of grammatical markers and categories

Students will be helped to master all these strategies if, when reading and listening, they learn to use such clues as the plural forms of nouns and verbs, the way verbs change to form tenses, word order and other such features to help them recognise to which category (verb, noun, adjective etc) an unknown word belongs. This can be a considerable help in making intelligent guesses about the meaning of the word.

6.1.4 Making use of the social and cultural context

Another aid to the drawing of correct inferences is for students to bear in mind that there are regularities in the real world which make it possible to anticipate what people may say or write about it. The ability to predict occurrences in the real world makes it possible to anticipate words, and their meaning, in a given context. This is one reason why it is important for a French course to develop awareness and understanding of countries and communities where French is spoken.

6.1.5 Using common patterns with French

Knowledge of the following patterns of word formation in French can help to understand a text.

- re prefix (eg commencer - recommencer; faire - refaire)
- the eur ending applied to verbs (eg employer - employeur) and applied to adjectives (eg grand, grandeur, etc)
- ette ending (eg maison - maisonette; tarte - tartelette; camion - camionette)
- able ending (eg laver - lavable; manger - mangeable)
- aine ending (eg quinze - quinzaine; cent - centaine; douze - douzaine)
- té ending (eg bon - bonté; beau - beauté)
- ier ending (eg épicerie - épicier; police - policier; ferme - fermier)
- in prefix (eg actif - inactif; connu - inconnu; cassable - incassable)
- ion and ation endings (eg réparer - réparation; inventer - invention).

6.1.6 Using cognates and near-cognates

A few 'false friends' (eg expérimenté, sensible, large) make it necessary to use this strategy with care and in collaboration with the strategy of using the visual and verbal context above. However, for each 'false friend' there are very many 'good friends' of which anglophone learners of French can make good use. These fall into two main categories: cognates and near-cognates.

Cognates

There are very many words which have exactly the same form, and essentially the same meaning, in French and in English (eg innocent, justice, muscle, rectangle). When such words occur in context, students can be expected to understand them in English and French.

Near-cognates

Students will also be expected to understand words which meet the above criteria but which differ slightly in their written form in French, usually by the addition of one or more accents and/or the omission of a letter (eg création, hygiène, mâle, littérature).

6.1.7 Using common patterns between French and English

There are thousands of words in French which, although not having exactly the same form as the English word, can easily be understood with the application of a few, simple rules. When words which can be understood using the rules below occur in context, students will be expected to understand them.

| Pattern | Examples |
| :--- | :--- |
| The French word adds an 'e' | branche, liquide, signe, vaste |
| The English word adds an 'e' | futur, masculin, paradis, pur |
| Words which end with 'e' or 'é' in French and with 'y'  in English | beauté, liberté, mystere, armée |
| Words which end with 'i' or 'ie' in French and with 'y' in  English | économie, parti, tragédie |
| Words which end with aire in French and with 'ar' or  'ary' in English | grammaire, militaire, populaire |
| Words which end with el in French and with al in  English | individuel, officiel |
| French adverbs ending with ment which end with 'ly' in  English | complètement, généralement, spécialement |
| Verbs which add 'r' or 'er' in the infinitive in French | admirer, confirmer, inspecter |
| Verbs which end with er in French and with 'ate' in  English | cultiver, décorer |

| Pattern | Examples |
| :--- | :--- |
| Words where 'o' or 'u' in English is replaced by ou in  French | approuver, gouvernement, mouvement, bouddhiste |
| Words where a 'd' is added in English | aventure, avance, juge |
| Present participles ending in ant in French and 'ing' in  English | dégoûtant, commençant, nageant  Students will be expected to understand such present  participles where the infinitive of the verb is a listed  word |
| Words which end with e or eux in French and with  'ous' in English | énorme, précieux, religieux |
| Words which end with que in French and with 'c', 'ck',  'ch', 'k', or 'cal' in English | automatique, physique, risque |
| Words which end with $f$ in French and with 've' in  English | actif, adjectif, possessif |
| Words which end with eur in French and with 'our',  'or', or 'er' in English | boxeur, empereur, vigueur |
| Words which end with e or re in French and with 'er' in  English | ministre, ordre, interprète |
| Words which end with e in French and 'a' in English | drame, propagande |
| Words where 'u' in English is replaced by o in French | fonction, prononciation |
| Words where 'oun' in English is replaced by on in  French | annoncer, prononcer |
| Words which have a circumflex accent in French and  an 's' in English | forêt, honnête, intérêt, tempête |
| Words where dé in French is replaced by 'dis' in  English | décourager, dégoûter |
| Words where é or es in French is replaced by 's' in  English | espace, éponge |

Strategies such as those outlined above will generally be more easily applied in reading than in listening, as reading offers more opportunities to slow down, look at unknown items at leisure and study the context. Words which look the same in two languages may sound quite different.

Also, in French, there are many sound features which are not word-based (eg elision; whether or not ' $e$ ' is sounded; stress; intonation) and so make the application of some of the strategies for understanding unknown words more difficult. In particular, it must be remembered that grammatical markers in the spoken language are often quite different from those in the written one. The most obvious are the plural forms:

- nouns and adjectives frequently have no plural forms: plurality is shown by a change in the pronunciation of the article or some other related word: le grand pont - les grands ponts;
- Verbs either have no plural form at all: il donne/ils donnent: il chantait/ils chantaient
- or add a consonant: il vend/ils vendent: il finit/ils finissent.

To hear accurately, students should have the specific differences of the spoken language brought to their attention. However some of the general strategies for understanding listed above can be used successfully in listening. For example:

- ignoring words which are not needed for a successful completion of the task set
- using the (visual and) verbal context
- making use of the social and cultural context
- using common patterns within French.

In addition, the following strategies are included for listening and understanding (in place of reading the above strategies regarding cognates and common patterns between French and English).

6.1.8 Near-cognates

Strictly speaking there are no French words which sound exactly like their English equivalents. There are a few near-cognates which are relatively easily recognised. They are often words imported from other languages eg radio, ski.

Some words which in reading cause no problem can be unrecognisable in speech. For example, spécialisation has seven distinct syllables in French and five in English, it has five specific pronunciation differences in French and a complete change of stress pattern.

However, provided that certain relationships between sound patterns in French and English are recognised, then French words with a clearly 'different' pronunciation in English can be understood. Examples of patterns where a communicative strategy can be applied include the following:

- the sound [i] will always involve a French i, which in English may be a diphthong eg pipe, mine
- the sound [a] will always involve a French a which in English may be a diphthong eg nation
- the termination [œr] is always eur which may be English -or or -er eg acteur
- the termination [sio] is always -tion or -sion and therefore English [Ÿen], eg nation, passion
- the termination [if] in French is -if and in English is often "-ive" eg actif
- the termination [ik] in French is -ique and ic and in English is often "-ic" or "-ical" eg physique
- the initial $[\ddot{Y}]$ is usually the English ch eg chapelle, charme.
- the termination [ma~] which can be added to many of the adjectives in the lists to form the adverb eg complètement
- the termination $\left[\alpha^{\sim}\right]$ which can be added to the stem of listed verbs to give the present participle eg mangeant, gémissant.

6.2 Strategies for production

Research and experience show that people who communicate effectively in a foreign language tend to make good use of systematic efficient verbal and non-verbal strategies to get meaning across, in spite of their imperfect command of the language.

Individual students may fail to learn - or forget - language items required by some tests, or they may wish to attempt to go beyond the demands of the specification in completing the task set. In these circumstances, the following strategies can prove useful. They fall into two main categories: non-verbal and verbal.

6.2.1 Non-verbal strategies

Pointing and demonstration

This may be accompanied by some appropriate language (eg "Comme ça..." "Qu'est-ce que c'est ?" "Ça fait mal ici").

Expression and gesture

This may be accompanied, where appropriate, with sounds (eg "Oh!" which, with appropriate intonation, facial expression and gestures, can convey such attitudes and functions as pain, surprise, anger, fear, pleasure and admiration).

Mime

This can be accompanied by appropriate sounds and language and can sometimes help communication to be maintained when it might otherwise break down (eg "Je peux vous aider ?" with a suitable mime if one has forgotten the words such as "balayer" and "essuyer"). This strategy has obvious limitations in a speaking test which is recorded and assessed on the basis of the recording.

Drawing

This can be an efficient strategy with some tasks (especially written) and can convey both attitude and information (eg a diagram showing how to get from one point, such as a station, to another, for instance a home).

6.2.2 Verbal strategies

Using a word which refers to a similar item

Using a word which refers to a similar item to the one the speaker/writer wishes to refer to, but for which they have forgotten the word (eg montre for horloge, tasse for verre, fleur for rose or prêter for louer). This is not always effective and its use would be assessed according to its effectiveness in a particular context.

Description of physical properties

This can be used to refer to something when the name has been forgotten (eg "c'est rond... le fruit jaune... l'objet qu'on voit sur la table..."). The physical properties refer to colour, size, material, position and shape. The use of this strategy in an exam would be assessed according to its communicative effectiveness.

Requests for help

These may include requests for rewording (eg "Comment dit-on 'chair' en français...?" "Qu'est-ce que cela veut dire en anglais ?") and questions; which make no reference to English (eg "Comment s'appelle cette machinelà ?"..."Ça s'écrit comment ?"). It is clearly preferable to use such requests for help than for communication to collapse and their use will be assessed according to the context. When requests for help with specific problems occur, the teacher should maintain the role of a sympathetic native speaker and help accordingly. The teacher should avoid taking over from the student and carrying out the tasks set.

Simplification

This is when a student avoids the use of a form of which they are unsure (eg "il faut que je m'en aille"..."je viendrai s'il fait beau") by using a form they find simpler (eg "je dois partir"..."je viens s'il fait beau"). When such simple forms are used correctly and appropriately they will be rewarded accordingly. Correct and appropriate use of more complex forms will also be rewarded.

A systematic use of simplified forms may reduce error, facilitate communication and increase fluency but, if overused, this strategy may result in learners failing to make full use of their capabilities.

Paraphrase

This is where the student uses words and messages in acceptable French, avoiding the use of words which they have forgotten (eg "Elle n'est pas riche" for "Elle est pauvre", "C'est comme un..." "C'est le contraire de..." "C'est une sorte de..."). When used well, this strategy communicates the message effectively to a sympathetic native speaker and such use in an exam would be assessed accordingly.

Reference to specific features

Reference to specific features (eg "L'animal aux longues oreilles..." "La jeune fille qui porte des lunettes...") is often quite effective and its use would be assessed accordingly in an exam.

Reference to the function of an object

Reference to the function of an object and the actions that can be performed with it (eg "L'objet qu'on utilise pour ouvrir une bouteille") is a commonly used strategy which is usually effective in communicative terms.

Word coinage

Another strategy sometimes used by language learners is word coinage, the creation of words based either on English or French words. This strategy usually produces words which do not exist in French or which, if they do exist, have a different meaning from the one intended. The use of this strategy is rarely effective in promoting communication and students would be well advised to use it only if all other strategies fail.

Topic avoidance

Another commonly used strategy is topic avoidance, when the student avoids or abandons a topic because of inability to deal with it. Use of this strategy in the exam will not allow the student to be given full credit. Use of it in a learning situation will reduce opportunities for the development or expansion of the student's repertoire. It is a strategy which should be discouraged. A basic condition for communication strategies to have a potential learning effect is that they are governed by achievement, rather than avoidance behaviour.

Evidence suggests that the availability of a range of strategies such as those outlined above, and flexibility in their use, represent an important advantage in overall communicative effectiveness. It also appears that the most effective strategies demand some linguistic proficiency and that the more proficient speakers are also better at using communication strategies effectively.

The development of such strategies cannot be seen as encouragement not to develop linguistic knowledge. Strategic competence is not a substitute for vocabulary learning, but a useful supplement. All language users make use of communication strategies, even in their first language, and really successful strategies usually pass unnoticed. They are an important part of the teaching and learning process.

Fairness first

Thank you for choosing OxfordAQA, the international exam board that puts fairness first.

Benchmarked to UK standards, our exams only ever test subject ability, not language skills or cultural knowledge.

This gives every student the best possible chance to show what they can do and get the results they deserve.
