Selected study sequence

What's assessed?

In Paper 1, Section A students are required to answer questions on a selected episode from a television series.

Questions will focus on both a selected 2-3 minute study sequence in the episode and the episode in its entirety.

Episode and study sequence:

The prescribed episode for this specimen examination is:

Doctor Who, 'Kerblam!' – Series 11, Episode 7.

The study sequence for this specimen examination is as follows:

Start: 00.30 Final opening title on screen: 'KERBLAM! Written by Pete McTighe'

Finish: 02.52 Outside the warehouse. Doctor says, "We're going undercover. Chop chop."

Release date:

The details of the selected study sequence will be released on 1 May in the same year as the June examination and on 1 October in the same year as the November examination.

The prescribed episode for study will be updated every three years.

Please note that it is the centre's responsibility to ensure that students have access to the prescribed episode.
