

INTERNATIONAL GCSE

Media Studies

Prescribed television product for study
Specimen

What's assessed?

In Section A of the examination, students are required to answer questions on a selected episode from a television series:

Questions will focus on both a selected 2-3 minute study sequence in the episode and the episode in its entirety

Episode and study sequence:

The prescribed episode for this specimen examination is:

Doctor Who, 'Kerblam!' – Series 11, Episode 7

The study sequence for this specimen examination is as follows:

Start: 00.30 Final opening title on screen: 'KERBLAM! Written by Pete McTighe'

Finish: 02.52. Outside the warehouse. Doctor says, "We're going undercover. Chop chop."

Release date:

The details of the selected study sequence will be released six weeks prior to the exam in May/June and six weeks prior to the exam in October/November.

The prescribed episode for study will be updated every three years.

Please note that it is the centre's responsibility to ensure that students have access to the prescribed episode.